

Technical poles – a concentration of light effects

(Belfort, France)

Design of a range of special galvanized steel masts for focusing lighting effects. These masts comprise simple geometric shapes – squares, cylinders and so on – and confer an overall identity on the site while incorporating a variety of materials. They allow for the smooth optical adjustment of the project and easy maintenance of the road system. Their design is elegant and uncluttered.

contracting authority
ville de Belfort
landscape designer
seralp
lighting designer
l'atelier lumière - Lucas Goy

budget
1 300 000 € e VAT
surface area
49 000 sq.m
competition 2007
completion
2009