

A sustainable district as the new entrance to La Défense (Puteaux, France)

The Rose de Cherbourg project aims to rebuild links between the business district and the town of Puteaux. The transformation of the Rose de Cherbourg interchange into a new suspended walk enhances soft mobility. This project, which is emblematic for the project management of public spaces and the landscape, is intended to become a sustainable district with transformed public spaces.

contracting authority
EPADESA
urban planning and
landscape design
AME
lighting design
les éclaireurs

surface area
5 ha
budget
19 000 000 € HT
completion
2023