

Rehabilitation of the former train-station

(Saint-Omer, France)

Competition for the rehabilitation of the railway station of Saint-Omer in an Eco-digital equipment dedicated to digital services including an innovation market, a mobility space, a Fablab and a childcare center. The lighting enhances the presence of the facades, and recompose an interior volume. The atrium regains its centrality, with walkways giving access to floors and at the coffee shop.

contracting authority	budget
communauté d'agglomération de Saint-Omer	16 300 000 € HT
architect	competition
atelier Novembre	2016 - non selected
lighting designer
les éclairieurs	